AS WE

REMEMBER . . .

So many exciting things have happened to us this past school year. Sports stand out in many of our minds. Remember the county tourney? We didn't win? Well, we made the finals, didn't we? Our basketball record was the best in the county, which made us all very proud. The important dance of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom, was as beautiful as ever. All the pizza parties and the slumber parties gave us a welcome change from school and studying. Just stop to think—not all of these things would have happened without our school! Who would play on our team? How would we become acquainted with so many people? It's like everything else in life; everything seems to revolve around one particular thing—in our case it is Huntertown High School.

Mary Ann -
You sweet little fresh.
Be good & I hope to see you soon.

MRS IDA MALCOLM

Our School Days and Teachers . . .

DEDICATION The staff proudly dedicates the 1959 Citadel to Mrs. Ida Malcolm, who has reigned over a Huntertown classroom for many wonderful years. She is unshakenly faithful to the highest ideals by which she taught us and by which we learned. Her lofty ideals are deeply implanted into the lives of her former students as well as those of today.

Making Our Beginning in the Grades.

Three of Mrs. Simon's first graders, Dale Warner, Alan Malcolm, and Billy Arnold, are all wrapped up in a python skin.

Mrs. Pratt's second graders made Valentine people to put on their blackboards.

New idea! Miss Wicherts' third graders made a Valentine Tree

John Gump and Carolyn Mills from Mrs. Yoder's fourth grade are "real" gardeners.

"All Aboard" was the title of the play put on by the sixth graders in Mr. Parkison's room.

Keeping Up With All the Crazy Fads,

Dig those crazy vests.

The black legs are coming.

Gee Dad, look at our bright, shiny, new cars.

Not really bugs, we're just going steady.

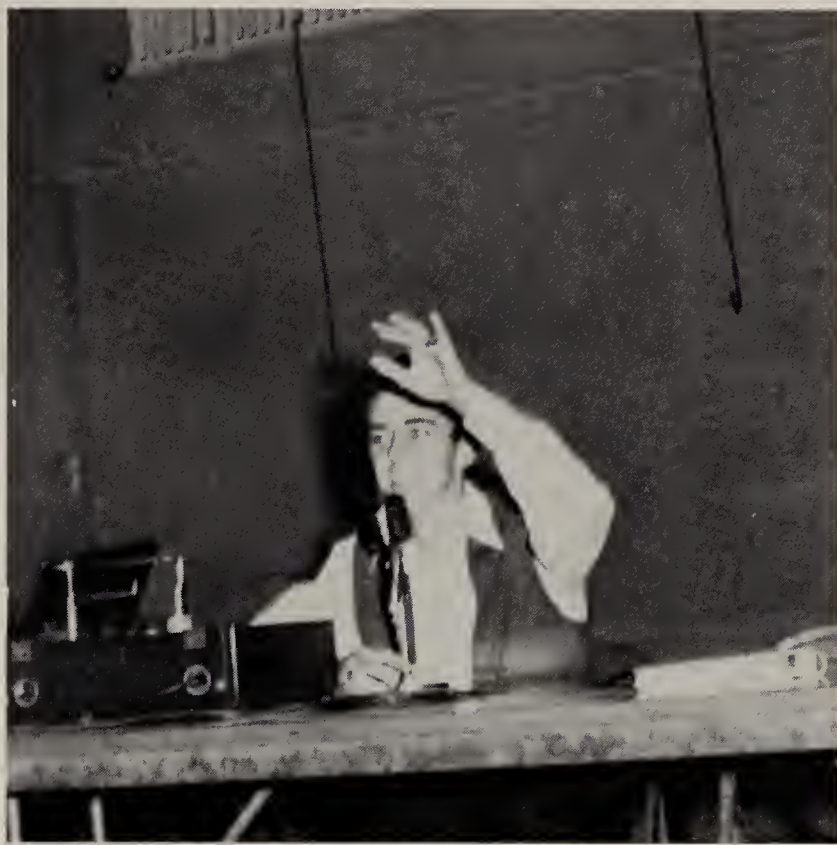

They come in all kinds, colors, sizes, and shapes.

Dancing 'Till Midnight . . .

They learn to rock and roll young these days!

All right, kids, let's go! Ladies' choice.

Sometimes we even enjoy dressing up. Aren't we beautiful tonight?

This is a dance? (Maybe on Mars.)

Always Being Ready for a Party.

A fight to the finish—watch out Dave, you might get hurt.

If you're going to treat me this way, I'll just go home.

Is anybody coming with us? We're on our way to somewhere.

We really can't cook, we're just pretending.

Juniors Chose an Oriental Prom Theme

Bill Archer and Carolyn Dickie were chosen to reign over the prom. Carla Beth Elster carried in the Queen's crown.

The juniors chose "Sayonara" for the theme of the 1958 prom. The ceiling was draped with red crepe paper, and Japanese murals were along the walls. Flowers decorated the archway and the stairway. Ten juniors were chosen to be on the court. They were Cathy Noble, Phyllis Gordon, Janice Johnson, Janet Johnson, Charlotte Sloffer, Tom Clark, Harold Schafer, David Dunwiddie, Jim Royer, and Tom Tom.

Eleven sophomore girls in Japanese dress served as waitresses. They were Barbara Schenk, Barbara Grim, Rose Ann Croy, Mary Robertson, Jean Demske, Roberta Baker, Jean Freeman, Jennie McGraw, Ruth Stults, Judy Anderson, and Sharon Montooth.

Two students from Indiana Tech helped entertain. They told about India and played some music typical of that land.

Sharon Dove, Gaynl Kessler, Karan Jordan, Carolyn Dicke, Cathy Noble, and Joyce Rodenbeck sang "Sayonara" at the banquet.

The Roaring Wildcats Were Rough . . .

The mighty, mighty Wildcats.

Here they come, charging through.

You gotta go team; you gotta go, go, go.

and Ready at the County Tourney

Do you call this basketball?

Two points please!

Come on Gay, stretch a little.

No, no girls!

How is that for size?

Peek-a-boo, I see you.

Typing I Classes, taught by Mrs. Bauserman and Miss Slater build a typing foundation which will be added to in the next course. These students must learn to type accurately and speedily. They learn how to skillfully type both business and personal problems.

Even a senior must work!

Business Ed. Trains Future Business Leaders

The publications class although very informal involves much hard work. Each day at 12:30 the newspaper staff and the yearbook staff meet in the typing room to plan, type, draw layouts, and rack their brains for new ideas.

How is the interview going, Carolyn?

Home Economics, taught by Mrs. Hostetler, should be very valuable to future homemakers. Almost every aspect of home life is covered in class—cooking, sewing, caring for children, and solving family problems.

Four of the sophomore girls seem to be having a good time. "Be careful not to burn the water!"

Home Ec and Shop Prepare Us for the Future

Shop classes, taught by Mr. Fryback provide training for a useful vocation for the future or perhaps the boys will become very accurate with "Do-It-Yourself" projects in their own homes.

The electric saw is keeping these two Freshman boys out of mischief.

High School Art, under the direction of Mrs. Walsh, teaches the student to express his individuality through painting, sketching, and other artistic mediums.

Don't spill that paint, Linda!

Art & Dramatics — Opportunity for Individuality

Drama teaches the student to express himself in action and speech through the characterization of human emotion.

On guard!

Mr. Rebbe's physics class covers a wide scope from the study of the simple lever to the analysis of the atom.

Even these seniors appear to be studying.

Even Scientists Need Successful Homelives

While in Mrs. Hostetler's family relations class the students are analyzing the problems of everyday living.

Preparing for a discussion of the type of house construction the family needs.

Under the watchful eye of the study hall teacher, Huntertown students prepare for tomorrow's class.

A typical scene finds most students preparing their daily assignments.

Study Hall and Library — Quiet Studying

Under Miss Enley's competent guidance, the library assumes the task of providing the student with reference material for class and fiction for his personal enjoyment.

Student librarians issue and check in books.

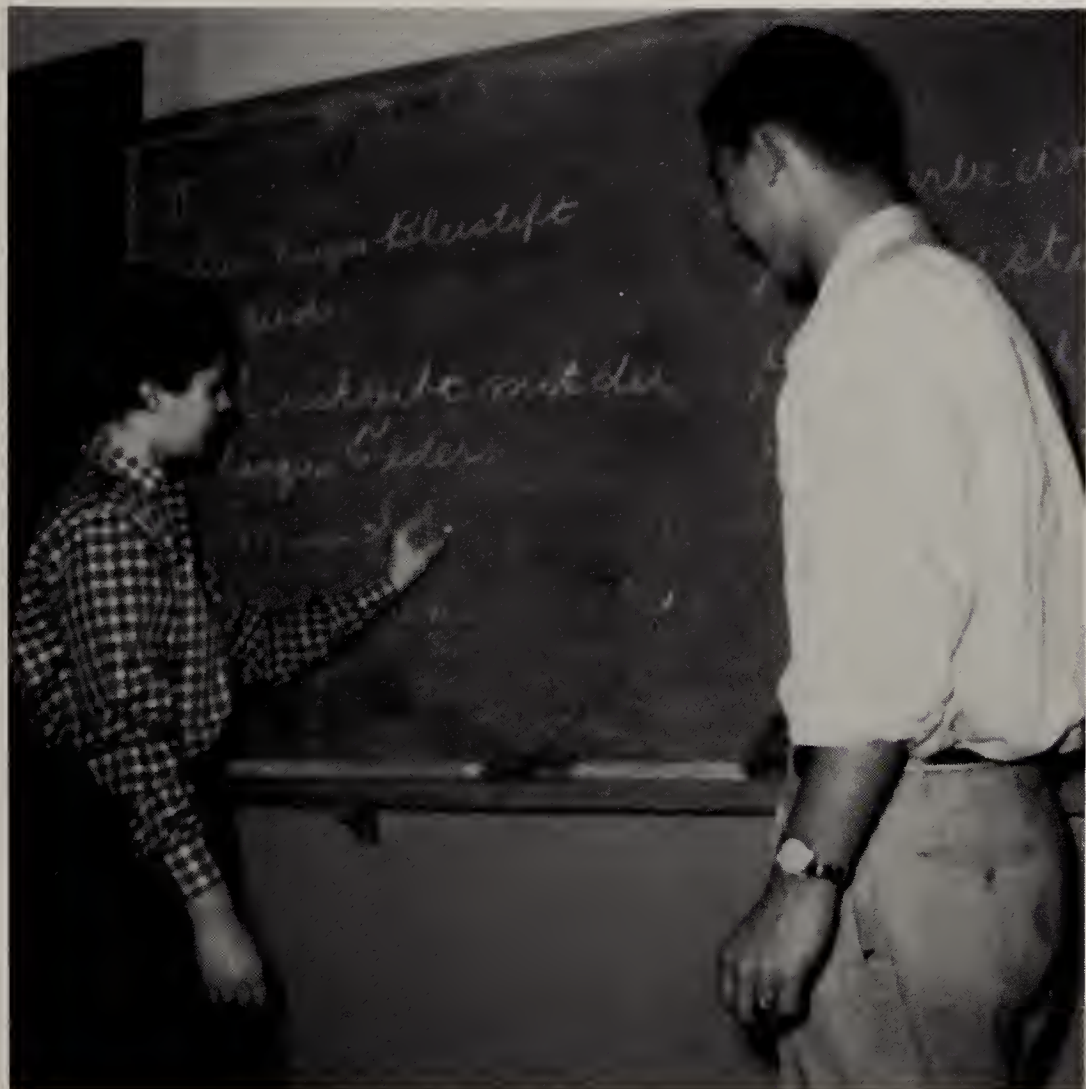

English classes lay the foundation on which other courses are built. A good understanding of the English language enables the student to better comprehend the written and spoken word.

Students learn to put their thoughts on paper.

Language Studies Promote Better Communication

Our school also stresses better communication in a foreign language. These beginning classes give a basis for more advanced study of the language.

CARL F. ELSTER
Supervising Principal

Carl F. Elster

"My acquaintance with the Class of 1959 is almost of three years' duration now. Over that period of time, we have praised them, prodded them, counseled them, criticized them, scolded them; worked with them and worked for them; helped them and hoped for them. Now our combined efforts will be put to the test. The members of the Class of 1959 face a tremendous challenge as they take their places in the present-day world. And as I remember, they possess the potential to meet that challenge squarely. My sincere hopes and prayers are with all of them for a successful, worthy, and happy future."

These Are Our Supervisors . . .

"Each school year provides a new group to reflect upon their twelve years' accomplishments in the preparation of their school record, the yearbook. With conclusion of these years of study, enjoyment, disappointments, achievements, and association with classmates comes the opportunity; through further advanced study in service training or in competition in labor market; to begin a new role of increasing importance as an adult citizen. Each graduating class offers a challenge to themselves to face this new role with confidence and a will to achieve; also to those whom they leave in school, the class offers a challenge to strive for their best in the accomplishment of their record.

To the seniors of the present and future of Eel River-Perry School go my best wishes for the highest attainment in these endeavors."

TALLEST AND SHORTEST

Arthur Pion and Micaela Bowers

"Gee, I'm getting dizzy up here in the clouds."

CATHY NOBLE

Cathy was chosen Huntertown's D. A. R. Good Citizen by her senior classmates and the faculty.

The qualifications for the contest were leadership, scholarship, patriotism, and dependability. She took an examination with other area girls to determine the county winners, one of whom became Indiana's Good Citizen.

MICAELA BOWERS

Micaela earned the honor of making the highest score in the Betty Crocker Search for the Homemaker of Tomorrow, a scholarship test.

Altogether 350,000 senior girls throughout the country took the test. Micaela received an attractive homemaking pin which represents the slogan "Home is Where the Heart Is." Her examination paper is now entered in competition with school winners from all over the state.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Phyllis Gordon, treasurer; Stan Dunten, president; Janice Johnson, secretary; Dave Dunwiddle, vice president.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1959

Christmas tree and magazine sales, a car wash, a dance and a coat check—these were the money making projects of the senior class. The money was used for a senior trip to New York and Washington, and to finance graduation exercises.

Our class was competently lead by the class officers and our two very efficient sponsors, Mrs. Janice Bauserman and Miss Helda Studebaker. These people boosted our class morale and helped with many problems.

We have had our agreements and disagreements—happy moments and unhappy moments, but we will always remember the wonderful people and activities of the Senior Class of 1959.

The Seniors give Sock Hop.

He has a smile and never loses it; He has a frown but never uses it.

Ambition: College.

LARRY ROGER LEWIS

"Smoke"

A talkative fellow is hard to find, but Larry is active in this line.

Ambition: Undecided.

MARILYN MARIE McBRIDE

"Marilyn McCree"

Music is the spice of life; Perhaps I'll be an artist's wife.

Ambition: To be a secretary; later a wife and mother—each to the best of my ability.

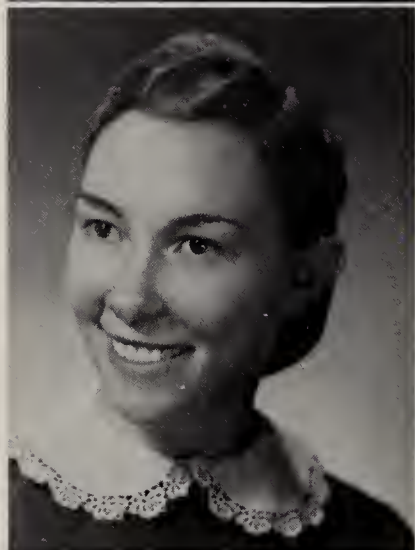

RUSSELL EUGENE McKINLEY

"Gene"

It's not what you do; it's what you are caught doing.

Ambition: To be a truck driver.

MARY ELLEN MYERS

"Mary"

Mary is swell, as we all know; Maybe that's why we like her so.

Ambition: Secretary and housewife.

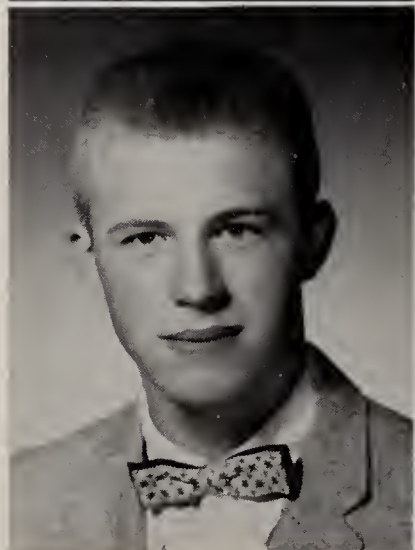

CATHRYN MARION NOBLE

"Cathy"

Cathy wouldn't write her own; But her many abilities we've always known.

Ambition: College.

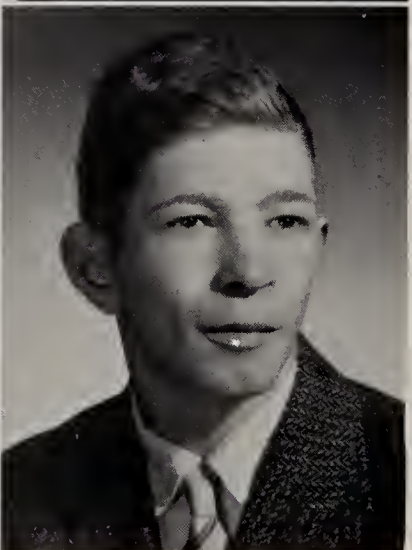

DARWIN RUSSELL OTT

"Junior"

A little nonsense now and then; Is relished by the best of men.

Ambition: Pilot.

ARTHUR GENE PION

"Art"

Every inch a good fellow; And just so few inches.

Ambition: Policeman.

Happiness, Caused by Receiving Diplomas;

DAVID ALLEN PLUMMER

"Pappy"

He's gentle, he's shy; But there's mischief in his eye.

Seventh Grade Are the Newcomers

The Seventh grade seemed thrilled to become a part of the Junior High. Along with dating, dancing, and going to all the parties; there was, of course, school life. Home economics, shop, mathematics, science, English, social studies, music, and art were the many subjects that the entire class studied, or should have.

Planning, planning, ever planning. Jack Martin, Ronnie Wilson.

Bob Blanchard, Senior center of the Wildcats, led his club to a 18-3, 1958-59 season, and a A. C. A. C. Championship. Bob was the captain of the "Cats", leading his club to a great season, with his good scoring and tremendous rebounding ability. He ended his regular season, scoring 330 points which was good for a 15.7 game average. Bob set a school record in the A. C. A. C. by scoring 127 points in eight games.

Bob began his varsity career as a sophomore as a member of the sectional squad. As a junior, he played regular most of the season at a forward position; then as a senior, he was picked as the starting center on the All-County Selection.

Bob Blanchard was picked the most valuable basketball player of Huntertown High School for the basketball season 1958-59.

He has springs in his feet.

Mr. Cherry presented Bill Archer an award on Senior Day.

BILL ARCHER

Big Wheels Around School

Bill was selected the most valuable baseball player for the 1958 season.

This is Bill's third year on the varsity, as he is one of the few boys to make a varsity letter in his freshman year.

Bill's importance to the team not only is with his being the number one pitcher, but also his versatility. This junior boy played first base as well as the outfield, along with his pitching. He fully deserves the most valuable player award in baseball.

Mr. Harry Richey was the sponsor of the Hi-Y this year. Serving as officers were Harold Schafer, President; Dick Spice, Vice President; Mike McDougall, Secretary; Jim LaRowe, Sergeant at Arms; Tom Clark, Treasurer; Duane Dove, Chaplain.

Some of the projects of the club were a dance and collection of clothing for needy families.

Stan Dunten, Dick Spice, Harold Schafer, and Jim LaRowe helped plan one the of the Hi-Y activities.

Active Citizenship

This year the Y-Teens had a new sponsor, Miss Karen Slater. Janet Johnson served as President, assisted by Vice President, Karen Sherwood; Secretary, Janice Johnson; Treasurer, Judy Stienbarger; and Chaplain, Cathy Noble. Kay Bosler, Jan Linley, Mary Ann Archer and Jo Bailey served as Class Representatives.

Some of the projects of the club were distributing Thanksgiving baskets to needy families, sponsoring the March of Dimes and a Valentine dance, selling potato chips and spending a weekend at camp.

One of the dance committees is trying to arrive at a decision, but they seem to be having a hard time.

The High-Stepping Band Marches in Contests

The Huntertown High School Band, under the direction of Walter Sloffer, has been very busy this year. The band marched at several of the fairs last fall, and won a well-deserved first place at the Auburn street fair. The basketball games were more enjoyable because of the half-time shows by the band and the twirlers. The band helped with the Thanksgiving program and presented their Spring Concert besides playing at the variety show and other school functions. It takes much time and hard work on the part of both the teacher and the students to present such fine programs. We take our hats off to the Huntertown High School Band.

Clubs Provide for Special Interests

Choral speaking began in Greece where it was used to honor the many gods.

Today choral speaking is used in church programs, plays, and interpretation of poems.

The Huntertown choral speaking group has participated in school programs and the Fine Arts in Miniature.

The Science Club met once a month to discuss projects or hear a speaker. To comply with the rules of the organization, each student completed a project. These projects gave the students further education and experience in the prominent field of science.

Mr. Rebbe and the Science Club Officers, Penny Noble, Sue Schmidt, and Larry Yoder, meet to discuss a problem.

Better Relations Developed by Council

FRONT ROW: Tom Clark, Marilyn McBride, Connie Gordon, Mr. Childs; BACK ROW: Richard Bowker, Linda McComb, Penny Noble, Duane Dove, Sam Baker, Kenny Malcolm, Robert Shank, Vicki Shultz, Philip Rudolph, Barbara Russell, Wayne Hollopeter.

The number of members in our Student Council was increased to 14 this year—3 from each high school class and 1 from each junior high class. These representatives met with Mr. Childs during home room on Fridays to discuss and to try to solve problems that arose in our school.

The purpose of the Student Council is to improve student-faculty relationship, and to improve the moral, scholastic and social standards of the school, thus promoting the general welfare of the school. The Council sponsored such projects as the Junior Red Cross and the collection of Christmas gifts for the State School. It worked on problems such as: congestion in the halls, behavior in the lunch line, the neatness of our school and noontime activities for students. Student Council also sponsored the annual intramural ping pong tournament. But its main purpose is to cooperate with faculty and students for the betterment of our school.

Officers elected were: President—Marilyn McBride; Vice President—Tom Clark; Secretary—Connie Gordon.

Marilyn McBride presides over one of the Council's Meetings.
